

WHAT IS CLAIMED AS NEW AND DESIRED TO BE SECURED BY LETTERS PATENT OF THE UNITED STATES IS:

1. An air suspension comprising a hollow axle beam suspended via air springs from opposite side rails, an inner space of the axle beam being divided by an intermediate partition into two divided spaces which are respectively communicated as surge tanks with the air springs for supplement of volumes of the air springs.